

Leadership in International Teams and Projects

The role of a leader is complex and requires a lot of flexibility. How to develop your role as a leader and what options for action result from this? What expectations does an intercultural group have of the leadership personality and which areas in group work, feedback and conflicts pose a particular challenge in the leadership role?

Learn to develop your own role as a leader and shed light on the essential elements of intercultural teamwork.

Content

Day 1

- Your own personality
- Personal challenges regarding the leadership role
- The group's expectations of a leader
- Insights into leadership theories

Day 2

- Communication methods and styles
- Team development and roles within the team
- Characteristics of an intercultural team
- Structures (content, organization, time)
- Group work, feedback and conflicts

Trainer: Vivian Ferreira

This course will be held in English and online.

WHEN

31.05.2021 09:00 - 16:00
01.06.2021 09:00 - 16:00

BOOK HERE