Networking Evenings with Secret Guests

Take advantage of the exclusive opportunity of talking to a renowned professor of TU Braunschweig during our networking evenings. He/she will share some interesting experiences with you concerning his/her career, research, leadership role, and current projects.

Be surprised from whose insights and tips you can benefit on this evening. In addition, you will have the opportunity to discuss your questions about your individual career plans with the 'secret guest' and the other PostDocs in an informal setting.

The evenings offer a mixture of topical input, subsequent discussion, and free networking with an informal closure.

Coaching

In individual and confidential coaching sessions, you have the opportunity to work out your further career steps, to reflect on decisions, to define your (leadership) role, or to deal with challenges in your everyday work, such as time and self management. After making an individual appointment, you will clarify your concerns and goals with the coach and agree on the further process:
