

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Marc D. Walter
Place of birth: Ludwigshafen am Rhein

EDUCATION AND RESEARCH EXPERIENCE:

Since 15.7.17 (DFG Heisenberg) Professor for Inorganic Chemistry at the Institute of Inorganic and Analytical Chemistry, TU Braunschweig

03/15-14.7.17 DFG Heisenberg Fellow at the Institute of Inorganic and Analytical Chemistry, TU Braunschweig

03/10-02/15 Emmy Noether Nachwuchsgruppenleiter at the Institute of Inorganic and Analytical Chemistry, TU Braunschweig

2006-2010 Postdoctoral Research Associate at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; research on the vinyl addition polymerization of norbornene and on transition metal alkane complexes
Mentor: Prof. Maurice Brookhart

2006-2008 Several short-term research stays at Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory (Chemical Science Division, Glenn T. Seaborg Center), Participating Guest

09/01-09/05 Ph.D. (summa cum laude) in Inorganic Chemistry at the TU Kaiserslautern
Dissertation Title: Structure and Bonding Studies of Paramagnetic Metallocenes and Their Adducts of the d- and f-Block Metals
Advisors: Prof. Helmut Sitzmann (TU Kaiserslautern, Germany)
Prof. Richard A. Andersen (UC Berkeley, USA)

06/02-12/04 Visiting Researcher at Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory (Chemical Science Division) and the University of California at Berkeley (Department of Chemistry)
Advisor: Prof. Richard A. Andersen

2001 Diploma (MSc)

4/00-8/00 University of Edinburgh, ERASMUS Exchange Program, Research in Bioinorganic Chemistry

1998-2001 Graduate studies in chemistry at the TU Kaiserslautern

18. Sept 1998 Prediploma (BSc)

1996-1998 Undergraduate studies in chemistry at the TU Kaiserslautern

18. June 1996 Abitur at the Werner-Heisenberg-Gymnasium Bad Dürkheim

FELLOWSHIPS, AWARDS AND HONORS AWARDS:

15.7.17-29.02.20 DFG Heisenberg Professorship

03/15-14.7.17 DFG Heisenberg Fellowship

2014 Award of the Dr. Otto Röhm Foundation

2014 Wöhler-BASF Young Investigator Award by the Wöhler Vereinigung für Anorganische Chemie of the German Chemical Society (GdCh)

2014 Heinz Maier-Leibnitz Price of the DFG

03/10-02/15 Emmy Noether Fellowship of the DFG

05/06-08/08 Postdoctoral Fellowship ("Feodor-Lynen-Program") of the Alexander von Humboldt-Foundation (Germany)
