The Nagoya Protocol: What does it mean in practice?

February - Tuesday 20th, 2024
10:00-12:00

Are you performing research on biological material that came from outside Germany?

Are you familiar with the legal requirements surrounding use of international biological diversity?

Join us in the information session “The Nagoya Protocol – What does it mean in practice?” organized by Departments of Plant Physiology and Food Chemistry (TU-BS), and the German Nagoya Protocol HuB project. In this interactive session we will focus on the basics of the Nagoya Protocol and Access and Benefit Sharing (or ABS for short), and its practical implications, including researchers’ compliance obligations under the EU law.

The session will take place on February 20th 2024, from 10.00 – 12.00 in the lecture hall, Dept. of Plant Physiology, TU-BS, Humboldtstraße 1, 38106 Braunschweig

Looking forward seeing you there !

Nagoya Protocol HuB project manager

Invited Speaker: Melania Muñoz Garcia, DSMZ, ABS Project and German
