Workshop

A Picture is Worth 1,000 Words – Images in the CLIL Classroom

Christine Grobe, OStR'

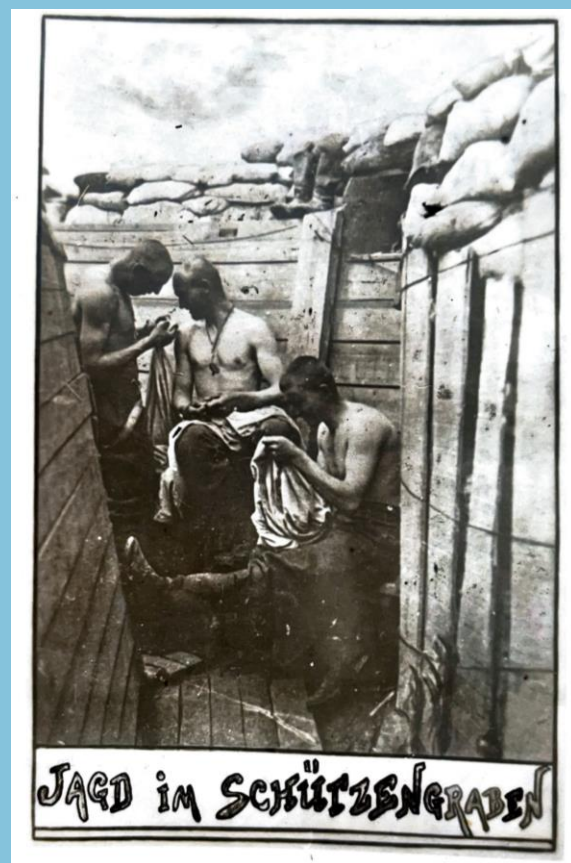

Thursday, 12.06.2025, 10:00 – 15:00 o'clock

BI 80.1

If textwork is too difficult – why not use images instead? Pictures and cartoons can spark curiosity, make complex topics more accessible and enhance language learning.

This workshop will deal with how to use visuals effectively to engage students in the CLIL classroom. You can expect hands-on activities looking at different strategies to incorporate images in lessons and discussing practical implications. No artistic skills required.
